

Biography: David Delgado is a surveyor and forestal engineer. He has over 5 years of experience in land formalization with indigenous and local communities within the Colombian Government. Since 2018, he has been part of the Amazon Conservation Team (ACT) and currently serves as employee for their Land Processes initiatives in Colombia.